

Interesting design
systems or style
guides

There are exhaustive aggregators of quality design documentation, such as Beautiful Docs, The Component Gallery, styleguides.io or the Component Name Matrix. The sample below is subjectively curated, for quick reference or inspiration.

Design Systems (UX/UI-centric)

- Audi, with a companion brand guide
- Atlassian Design System
- Biings Design System
- Blueprint by Palantir
- Canada.ca design system, interesting goals and content; few components, but a lot of governance
- Cedar Design System, very interesting patterns section (updated in 2023 with a neat look and feel)
- Cloudscape, strong focus on patterns and demos
- Designing for Playdate, on the uncommon topic of handheld gaming console, with Panic's usual top-notch copywriting. The related resources (e.g. dev docs, dev or design tools) are even better.
- Duolingo
- Evergreen, nice CMS and component props
- Goldman Sachs, a couple of interesting industry- or scale-specific things
- GOV.UK Design System
- If Design System, fresh look & feel, solid data visualization section
- Lexicon
- Morningstar
- Nord, solid presentation and governance, well-researched content
- OpenBridge, "user interfaces for the maritime industry"
- Orbit, for its dashboard-like home page and search
- PIE
- Pulse, cool style
- Royal Canin, interesting presentation and industry-specific content
- Ruter Design System, overall excellent, neat contrast testing tool
- SAP Fiori
- Spectrum
- UAE Design System, modern, non-trivial language support (including Arabic and French)
- Uniform
- Wanda, solid presentation and guidance, interesting taxonomy, delightful animations
- WHO Data Design Language
- Wise, fantastic presentation and content, including patterns and "foundations" far beyond the usual tokens
- Workday Canvas

Style Guides (product/brand-centric)

- Aesop Taxonomy of Design, “the creative processes, materials and features that distinguish Aesop spaces”
- Brand Estonia
- Chicago Design System, lighthearted, focused on compliance/governance, with a solid accessibility section
- Driveclub, in video format
- The Guardian digital design style guide
- Heliograph (Mixpanel)
- Helsinki Visual Identity Guidelines
- Instagram
- A List Apart
- mozilla dot design, impactful format
- Starbucks Creative Expression, fantastic presentation
- Sweden’s brand identity guidelines

Other

- IACCM Contract Design Pattern Library, “contract usability and understandability”
